

CDL Pre-course Assignment:

Congratulations for being accepted to NJC's Commercial Driver's License Course. You will have four information and activity packed days ahead of you. To help you prepare for the course, please visit the NJC CDL website <http://www.cdlresources.org> there you will find a host of information relevant to national and state CDL laws and regulations.

Before you arrive in Reno, the faculty has asked you to complete the following pre-course assignment. Please be prepared to answer the following questions:

How are commercial motor vehicle traffic violations currently handled in your jurisdiction?

How are convictions reported (who (position) is responsible for reporting convictions and to whom is the report made)?

What alcohol limits are currently imposed in your jurisdiction for persons with CDL?

Please tell us about at least one current (within the last year) CDL/CMV case (yours or another judges) from your jurisdiction and its outcome.

Your answers should be emailed to the CDL course administer Cat Todd at todd@judges.org, or you may fax them care of Ms. Todd to 775.784.1253.

I look forward to meeting you.

Melody Luetkehans,
NJC program attorney
